Meet & Greet AWI event!!!

Fellow AWI Members, Vendors and Guests: This year, we're gathering in New Hope, PA on Friday March 02, 2012. If you are a woodworking related industry vendor, manufacturer or service provider, you are invited to participate in the meet & greet presentation being held at the Triumph Brewing Company from 1 - 4 pm. The event is a great opportunity to meet and chat with all your Fellow woodworkers and potential buyers in one place. This show will feature about 20 different vendors, and is sponsored by the New Jersey AWI. At this show you are given an opportunity to present your product and/or your services to your fellow woodworkers and Guests, or just come down to as an attendee and find out more about AWI and the benefits this organization provides to its members. Tables will be provided. For more information or to register (and hurry because there are limited spaces) please click here. We hope to see you in New Hope in March.
